Xinyuan Hu

Eurhythmics Faculty, Conservatory

Born and raised in Tianjin, China, Sonia Xinyuan Hu received the Jim Hall Alumni Award and graduated with academic honors from the Cleveland Institute of Music. She is recognized as a skilled educator and pianist, serving as an instructor of Conservatory Eurhythmics at CIM. She has taught at numerous summer music festivals including CIM's Summer Sonata, Encore Chamber Music and Chloe Trevor Music Academy in Nacogdoches, Texas, where she taught Eurhythmics and was featured in the faculty concert. She has also given performances with ChamberFest Cleveland during concerts at Severance Hall's Reinberger Chamber Hall and Chautauqua's Lenna Hall.

In 2018, Hu was appointed as the music minister at Blessed Trinity Parish where she currently directs choir and instrumental ensembles.
